

Christine Oh is the Director of Individual Giving and Regional Partnerships at Grameen America. She is responsible for Grameen America's individual giving and major gifts as well as for institutional partnerships in specific regions, including California. Previously, Ms. Oh was the Director of Development at the Korean American Community Foundation. A native of Los Angeles, Ms. Oh worked at the California Community Foundation as a grantmaker and in development for more than four years. She started out her career in public service, working for a Congressman on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C. Ms. Oh is also a life coach and consultant, committed to supporting individuals in reaching their personal and professional goals. She also advises nonprofit leaders on strategies to strengthen governance and development efforts. She volunteers as a co-chair of Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy (AAPIP)-New York Chapter. Ms. Oh holds a B.A. in American Studies from University of California at Santa Cruz and an M.P.A., with an emphasis on Nonprofit Management, from the University of Southern California's Sol Price School of Public Policy.