

Erwin de Leon is the Deputy Academic Director for the Nonprofit Management M.S. Program at Columbia University's School of Professional Studies. He has served in various organizations, including the Institute for Children, Poverty, and Homelessness, Urban Institute, Aspen Institute, Human Rights Campaign, Episcopal Relief and Development, and Educators for Social Responsibility. He received his Ph.D. in Public and Urban Policy and M.S. in Nonprofit Management from the New School's Milano School of International Affairs, Management, and Urban Policy.