

MICHELE HALL-DUNCAN

Michele began her career at enCourage Kids as a volunteer and joined the foundation staff full-time in 1996. Her passion and warm personality combined with her leadership expertise eventually led to her rise in the organization and the programs department flourished under her direction. The relationships she has fostered over the years with enCourage Kids families and all levels of hospital administration have helped her to develop an integral understanding of their needs and has helped position the organization to be on the forefront of state-of-the-art programming.

Michele serves as a Trustee of the Children's Specialized Hospital Foundation where she serves as board Secretary and chair of the governance committee. She also serves on the Advisory Board of one of the nation's leading anti-bullying organizations, STOMP Out Bullying™. Michele is a member of the New York City chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals where she serves on the Professional Advancement Committee. A native of Flint, Michigan, Michele is a proud graduate of Michigan State University (go Spartans!!) with a B.A. in Advertising.
