

Stephanie Hyacinth is the director of corporate and foundation relations for Macaulay Honors College at the City University of New York (CUNY). Her work centers on building partnerships between the College and grant-making organizations and private philanthropy.

She is a fundraising executive with 25+ years in relationship management and grant stewardship, campaigns and audits, special events, and philanthropic advising. Skilled in aligning missions and programs, designing and implementing development operations, working with boards, and mentoring and professional development. Focused on supporting organizations, grant-makers, and philanthropists.

Stephanie is a graduate of Vassar College, a former member of the College's Board of Trustees, and current member of its Alumni/ae Association. She is a lector at the Co-Cathedral of St. Joseph.