

A native of Bangladesh, Ms. Salahuddin first joined Grameen America in 2008. As a part of the start-up team of five, she is a wealth of institutional knowledge for Grameen America and Grameen Bank. She has been a key part of the organization for ten years in many important capacities, including Director of Development through December 2015. She is currently responsible to lead institutional partnerships and develop opportunities for new strategic initiatives through to implementation. During her tenure at Grameen America, she has helped the organization secure some of the largest seven-figure institutional grants. Ms. Salahuddin also worked at Swisscontact in Bangladesh as Director of Portfolio Development in 2012, where she was responsible to acquire development projects funded by multilateral donors. Ms. Salahuddin holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Business Administration from Elmira College and speaks Bengali and French.